

You have nine circles (divided into 16 smaller sectors). Each has a different pattern of holes. Which two of them can form an opaque (non-transparent) circle when stacked on top of each other?

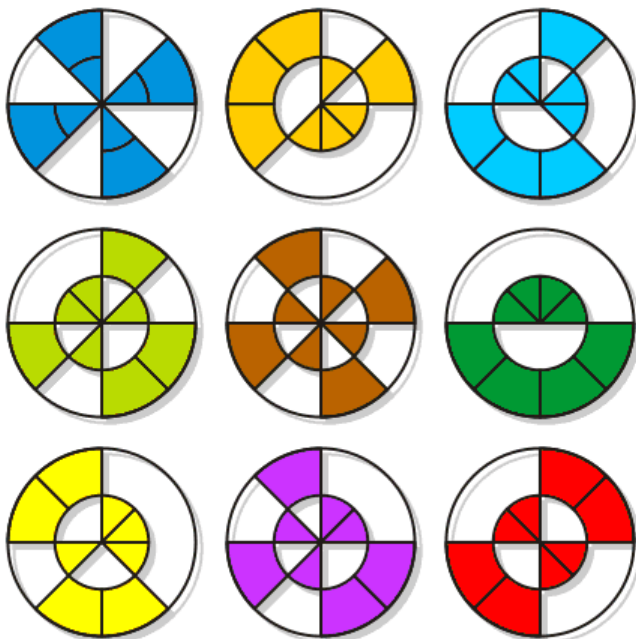

Circles can be rotated and/or overturned.

: Puzzle © 2008 Peter Grabarchuk. All Rights Reserved. www.peterpuzzle.com

You have nine circles (divided into 16 smaller sectors). Each has a different pattern of holes. Which two of them can form an opaque (non-transparent) circle when stacked on top of each other?

Circles can be rotated and/or overturned.

: Puzzle © 2008 Peter Grabarchuk. All Rights Reserved. www.peterpuzzle.com