

Green

Match the start of the sentence with the correct end and then, using numbers 1,2 etc. put them in the correct order.

Sound is produced by		on the vibrations to the cochlea.
Vibrations create		pass them on to a membrane called the ear drum.
Our ear flaps collect sound waves and		the vibrations to the inner ear, to the three small bones (semi circular bones)
Cochlea is the part of the inner ear		vibrations.
The eardrum vibrates and passes on		that contains tiny hairs, which vibrate then send messages to the brain.
The three small bones vibrate and pass		sound waves in the air.

Cut out the picture from below. Stick them on at the correct sound level. Draw the sound wave on the line below with right amplitude

20db

40db

60db

110 db

120db

